Workstation booking in the office
powered by IOTIQ GmbH

Work station bookings in the office: problems

- Unclear availability: Employees do not know which desks are free or occupied.
- Inefficient use: Desks remain unused because they are mistakenly considered occupied or are poorly organized.
- Communication problems: Employees have to ask or search manually to find a free seat.
- No overview: Supervisors have no overview of the workload or attendance of employees

The solution: DeskHero

- ▬ Central system: A platform on which all available workstations are displayed in real time.
- ▬ Easy booking: Employees can book their workstations via the app or web interface.
- ▬ Flexible use: Spontaneous bookings and adjustments possible at any time.
- ▬ Analytics and reports: Employers can view and optimize the workload and work habits of their teams.
